living there was fairly stressful, never getting away from the disaster as well as the deaths and poor family's that loss there love ones has been a lot for all of us to deal with. All 4 employees, including the owner loss everything but we are still alive. Please understand how lucky we all are to be alive and yes not having a picture of my son, or grandchildren or my parents that are now deceased, money can't replace that, but we are still alive!!

God Bless

Somehow, some good will come of all of this and make us stronger and better people for it.
